Bespoke Coaching & Mentoring Programmes

WELL Training coaching and mentoring programmes provide individuals with the knowledge, skills and behaviours to be able to implement a coaching approach within their organisation, whether that be within their teams or at a strategic level.

Target Audience

This programme is aimed at individuals who are excited and curious about leveraging coaching and mentoring knowledge, skills and behaviours to impact on their teammate's performance and wider organisational success.

Participants do not have to be in a coaching or mentoring role at the start of their development programme.

Leadership Talent Academies

WELL Training will become a client's silent partner and secret weapon, building fully holistic programmes to develop internal coaching and mentoring talent.

WELL have supported clients in designing and implementing internal coaching and mentoring programmes and integrated coaching and mentoring into organisational strategies for career development and performance management.

Accredited Qualification

WELL Training deliver accredited Coaching and Mentoring qualifications from Level 3 to Level 7.

As an approved centre for delivering CMI, there is an option to achieve additional CMI accredited Coaching qualifications ranging from Level 3 through to Level 7.
